The brochure contains descriptions of the attractions as well as suggested side trips. The cover includes photos of the Morgan at Mystic, Newport, Battleship Cove, the Lagoda, Edaville Railroad and the Mayflower II.

A handy estimated travel time table gives an idea of the time between major attractions and an estimated visiting time is also printed in the brochure. Plans are to have the trail well marked and a number on the highway will match the number on the brochure map to allow the visitor to pick up the trail's attractions.

The brochures will be enclosed in a folding case which will allow local tourist booths to add their local attractions to the Americana Trail brochure, thereby widening the scope of the possible points of interest.

Two hundred people attended the dinner, among them representatives of tourist communities from the entire 119 miles of the trail.

NOW•PAK™

plymouth home solves THE NOW ACCOUNT puzzle

Everybody's offering NOW accounts, including Plymouth-Home National Bank. What's the difference? None really. NOW accounts by themselves don't vary much from bank to bank.

Here at Plymouth-Home we've introduced NOW accounts, but we've added a few extras . . . we put together a package of banking services and call it NOW • PAK. By itself, a NOW account is useful mainly as a checking account for those who write relatively few checks, live on a limited income, or make frequent savings withdrawals. NOW • PAK is a whole new direction in NOW account services, designed to make your banking easier, less confusing and more convenient to you. It includes:

• 5% DAILY INTEREST • MONTHLY STATEMENTS •
PLUS
• TELLER 24 FOR ROUND-THE-CLOCK BANKING •
• MAXICHECK CASH RESERVE•
• AUTOMATIC CASH TRANSFERS •

This total banking package is available to you only at Plymouth-Home for only 10¢ a check. We've put together a completely unique package. With NOW • PAK you can solve your banking puzzle.

The Finance Committee rejected the request for Training and Travel and recommended a total budget appropriation from the town of 14,292.54. At town meeting, the town voted the following amounts:

Librarian	2910.60	(-3017.40)
Wages of Staff	5007.20	(+ 357.20)
Expenses	7550.00	(+ 200.00)

The Budget Recommendations figures that you print are clearly based on last year's 18 month budget and are in error.

Since the Trustees are mandated to spend only $56/wk for the librarian, if the 22 hour/wk schedule remained in effect in the new fiscal year, the Librarian would receive only $2.55/hr. This rate, I feel, is way out of line when you compare it with other town employees and the job description which requires the Librarian to be responsible for a public building, supervise a staff of town employees and spend town funds as well as serve the public.

Is the Librarian of less public value than labourers, life guards and clerks in Town Hall?

Yours faithfully
M. C. Rosenfield

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The salary argument put forth in this letter by Dr. Rosenfield has absolutely no bearing upon the present situation as I believe he is well aware. The fact is that this matter was the subject of protracted debate on the Annual Town Meeting floor where Dr. Rosenfield was afforded the opportunity to speak at length as was anyone else who so desired. A vote was taken. As free agents the library board members had the opportunity to vote as they pleased as did the other townspeople. The majority voted to cut the budget. After that vote, Mr. Richard Waterhouse attempted to bring back the article for reconsideration. His motion was defeated. At present, the Library Board of Trustees are no longer free agents. They are agents of the Town of Mattapoisett. They are bound to carry out the mandate of the citizens of the town as expressed by majority vote at that town meeting. The former librarian, Mrs. Pat Putman, ran the library in excellent fashion. She is a college graduate and moreover she has valuable experience as librarian. She did the job for approximately $2.55 per hour or less and would doubtless still be on the job if conditions permitted. However, this has absolutely no relevance.

The town meeting vote is the issue and the only issue.

Park were swiftly restored to order by a completely different element of young people. Working on their own, these teenagers undid the damage and cleaned up the park. It will be a great relief to those neighbors in that vicinity to learn that the young people who will enjoy recreation there this summer intend to do so in a responsible, orderly way. It takes very few acting destroyers to spoil things for the many. Mattapoisett adults are interested in young people and are working to give them interesting recreation for the summer.

It's good to have that interest appreciated. It's great to have confidence in youth reinforced. These volunteers who cleaned up Ned's Point have justified the faith and the interest that the townspeople have in them and they are in the vast majority.

The benches are now in place for summer enjoyment and new fireplaces are standing ready for those open air cookouts that taste so great at the Point.

If I can be of any assistance in obtaining a response from Flood Insurance Administrator Bernstein to your letter, I hope you will let me know.

With regard to the other issues raised by your questions, the lifting of the Arab oil embargo, and the apparent easing of the gasoline supply situation has removed the likelihood of gasoline rationing for the near future. There remains, however, a very serious price problem which -- if Congress continues to allow the Administration a free hand on energy policy -- promises to become even more severe this summer. Support is growing within Congress for some sort of meaningful rollback of petroleum prices, but it remains doubtful that this action will be taken.

DISCUSS SEWER CONNECTOR

Selectmen met with the Water Pollution Abatement Committee and representatives from Fairhaven to discuss future plans for a sewer system. The Fairhaven town meeting will be asked to authorize a $250,000 extension of the Fairhaven sewer system eastward toward the Mattapoisett line to service East Fairhaven and Sconticut Neck. The Fairhaven officials are interested in whether or not Mattapoisett will want to tie into their system because adequate size lines will have to be laid to the Fairhaven treatment plant if this is the case. Selectmen said that they could not commit the town and that no commitment could be determined until the project were presented to a Town Meeting. Fairhaven will proceed with their plans and will consider in that plan the possibility that Mattapoisett may want to use the system. The Fairhaven authorities indicated that the treatment plant is adequate now but may be inadequate should Mattapoisett tie into the system. The Selectmen asked that the Water Pollution Abatement Committee meet with them next Tuesday night to determine if they should carry out the feasibility study authorized by the town meeting at $3,000. to investigate a small intown system or whether the town should tie into Fairhaven. The Selectmen's office has indications that the Federal Government would pay 90% of the cost of connecting lines to the Fairhaven treatment plant and of Mattapoisett main lines and pumps. Other street lines, share of treatment plant building, maintenance and operating costs would be Mattapoisett's responsibility.

SEWAGE PIPELINE TO S.E. MASS.

Arthur W. Brownell, commissioner of the Department of Natural Resources, has replied to Mattapoisett Selectmen's objection and query on the proposed scheme to pump the metropolitan Boston areas' sewage south to the Cape area. He said the United States Corps of Engineers proposal for land treatment of the metropolitan district commission's sewage effluent has many people in southeastern Massachusetts concerned but that it is just a proposal. He said that no real study has been undertaken and until such time he couldn't say he would favor such a scheme. He indicated that the cost of pipe alone could be so overwhelming that the proposal could be economically unfeasible..

MATTAPOISETT BICENTENNIAL COMMUNITY

Robert A. Silveira, chairman of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen, has received a mailagram of congratulations from John W. WANT RETIREES COVERAGE

Selectmen have been informed by town counsel Leonard Perry that retired employees of the town are not included in the extended benefits voted by the town at the last town meeting. The town voted to pay 75% of the cost of town employees' group health and life insurance. The wording of the article extended this benefit to cover all town employees, in the town group plan, who work over 20 hours per week and have Blue Cross and Blue Shield. It was not worded to cover about 30 retired employees.

Selectmen intend to take corrective action as soon as possible. When the article was written there was no indication that retirees were excluded.

FAIRHAVEN REQUESTS MOSQUITO INFO

The Selectmen's office has received a request for information on the type of mosquito program that the town has. Fairhaven wants details as to the method and effectiveness of the mosquito control program.

Aerial spraying for lava was accomplished in May of this year. Fogging from the ground was done on North Street and the Mattapoisett Neck area this past week. People who are bothered can call the County and they will respond to fog the area. Residents have reported standing water (not flowing streams) to the Selectmen's office which has been treated by request.

BIDS OPENED

Selectmen opened bids for Workmen's Compenstation and town vehicle insurance as follows: vehicle, Peter Briggs, $9,520.46; G. H. Dunn, $9,174.29; Humphrey, Covill and Coleman, $8,831.62; workmen's compensation, Briggs, $5,884.00; Humphrey, Covill & Coleman, $5,464.00.

CABLE TV HEARING ATTRACTS NO INTEREST

A Cable TV hearing was held Tuesday night, June 18th, and no one showed up except the Cable TV advisory committee and Attorney Huntoon representing the Upper Cape Cablevision. This is one of the legal steps in the State regulations.

Selectmen will now prepare a report based on the Advisory Committee report and this hearing which did not proceed and another hearing will be held in the next few months.

George Hall, executive secretary, and Attorney Huntoon will now attempt to determine the next steps required by the regulations.

MASTER PLAN UPDATE

The Selectmen talked to the Planning Board about updating the Master Plan. The Department of Natural Resources will not grant any money for a bike path unless the town master plan has been brought up to date within the past 5 years. The Planning Board will investigate the cost and

ROAD COMPLAINT

A group of Brandt Beach residents approached Selectmen with complaints about Ocean View Drive and various other Brandt Island roads. Selectmen pointed out that most of these roads are private ways and the town bears no responsibility for them. The group was advised as to the steps which could be taken to prepare to ask the town to accept these private roadways.

BUS LINE PICK UP

The Almeida Bus line submitted a timetable to Selectmen with an offer to pick up passengers on Route 6 during runs through Mattapoisett. Bus users should obtain a timetable for schedules and flag buses for pick up.

SELECTMEN WON'T OPPOSE H6100

Senator John Aylmer requested Selectmen support for preventing H6100 from becoming law. This pending legislation would revise "cherry sheet" local grants from State. Since Mattapoisett under H6100 would gain $45,512. in 1974-75 and gain $74,905. in 1975-76, Mattapoisett Selectmen will not support opposition to the bill.

LICENSE RENEWAL

The license of Bowl-Mor Lanes was renewed by Selectmen.

EYESORE REVISITED

Legal machinery is creaking into low gear to rid Mattapoisett of a house abandoned last year on the Knights of Columbus property. A house moving firm owned by John Sylvester, Jr. of 140 Davisville Road, East Falmouth, requested permission to leave a house on the K of C property overnight. There is no tomorrow apparently and the house tilts on the trailer at the side of Route 6. The police department has filed a complaint against Mr. Sylvester for abandoning a vehicle. Public prosecutor Harry Schmidt will initiate court action to attempt to rid the town of this rotting hulk.

SEARCH FOR LAND FOR ENGINE

A Brandt Beach delegation discussed the possible location of a fire engine at Brandt Beach. Residents are looking for land to build a garage to house the engine.

Effective Library Hours

D.C. Jason, Editor

The cut of Mattapoisett Library hours announced for July 1st for 22 hours per week to 15 hours per week would be inconvenient at the onset of the busiest season of the year in any case. In actual fact, the cut in hours will have the effect of from 22 hours to 11, an effect of 50%. I speak of useable, convenient hours because 5 until 7 P.M. are supper hours. Any library patron would have been able to observe the peak periods of use. Those hours of 7 until 9 in the evening and the 2 until 5 period on Saturday are among the busiest as any librarian knows. As a matter of fact in 1973 the summer hours were extended by Mrs. Putman to 25. Saturday hours were from 9 to 12 noon as well as from 2 to 5. The effect of eliminating Saturday hours and the dropping of 4 peak evening hours on Monday, Wednesday & Friday will be to cut the more useful library hours in half. I doubt that Mattapoisett people will rearrange their supper hour in order to visit the library. I don't know whose convenience was accommodated in the change of hours to run right through the supper period but I believe that the result will be to give the library staff two hours of rest and quiet out of their proposed 15-hour week. Another result will be to further compress the library week to hand the public an inconvenience that may well prove intolerable. It is not clear whose convenience is held in high regard. It is possibly not that of the public library user.

'Fallen Angels'

COWARD'S SPIRIT IN MATTAPOISETT

Mattapoisett has never had its own summer theatre before, but this year it does. A small band of uncowardly thespians has been gathering regularly at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church, and soon will be producing Noel Coward's FALLEN ANGELS to benefit the church restoration fund.

FALLEN ANGELS is Noel Coward at his inimitable best, with an impossible plot, lots of juicy gossip, and split second timing; the play provides an unending two hours of comedy, from the sophisticated titter to the gauche guffaw.

When you come to this Richard Helfand production, you'll find Julia (Posy Dyer) and Jane (Sally Jones) as two married women in Julia's town house waiting for Maurice (Don Finley), their old "sweetheart". After more waiting, and more cocktails than anyone can be expected to tolerate, Jane stutters as she prepares to leave, "You'll regret that remark in my soberer moments".

But before I give it all away, make sure you circle July 26, 27 and August 2, 3, so you too can know WHAT DOES REVEREND FINLEY HAVE TO DO WITH FALLEN ANGELS?

Mattapoisett Seniors

Seniors, friends and people of Mattapoisett: you are invited to be at the Fire Station on July 4th at 1:00 P.M. for the ceremonies for placing the plaque in memory of the late William Huggard. This plaque was paid for by the Mattapoisett Seniors. He was the vice-president of the club until his death. It seems fitting and proper that this spot was selected and named for him, as he was devoted to the Fire Department, ready to answer every call.

The Council on Aging Service Center, Room #202, in the Mattapoisett Town Hall will be only open 3 afternoons a week during the summer months: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 1:30 to 3:30 P.M., telephone 758-4307. This is to assist any senior citizen whether they are a club member or not, to help with problems or refer them to proper source. In compliance with the laws on elder affairs and aging the service center must be open at least the minimum weekly hour, in order that seniors receive the benefits they enjoy, the hot meals, health care and clinic, etc. In many of the surrounding areas, the attendants are paid a salary or hourly rate. TRIP TO NEWPORT

The Sunday trip to Newport will long be remembered. The Topiary Gardens at Portsmouth, Rhode Island and Green Animals are unique. Three hundred years ago this type of gardening delighted royalty. Today it's everyone's pleasure to enjoy.

The most memorable and heartrending was the Newport Naval Base. Once bustling with activity, now quiet with only a skeleton crew, the beautiful vacant homes (and there's a housing shortage?) once occupied by families of personnel.

Although it rained no one's spirits were dampened. The bus driver, Norman, seemed to have made a pact with the weather man and skillfully maneuvered the tour that when outside it was clear and when raining the bus was close that we never got wet.

It was a great thrill and opportunity to see 19th Century romanticism and walk in and admire the most exquisite mansion ever built. An added unexpected treat was

Rochester Seniors

The anniversary luncheon at the Tamarack Restaurant on June 10 was well attended by members and guests of the Senior Citizens' Club of Rochester.

With the temperature above 90 degrees, the shaded pine grove at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Aiken was a perfect setting for the meeting that followed the luncheon.

Mr. Samuel Spindler presided over the large attendance who were happy for the comfort of the cool and casual arrangement.

Future activities were discussed. Refreshments were served, and so ended the June meeting.

There will be no meetings during July and August. Meetings will resume in September. The exact dates will be announced in August.

Plans were made for a free bus trip to Sandwich on Monday, July 8. Members who attended the June meeting signed up for the trip. Others who would like to attend may do so by calling Mr. Spindler by July 1st. Seniors are to meet on the

MATTAPOISETT GRANGE FAIR

Plans have been started for the annual Agricultural Fair the Mattapoisett Grange puts on each year in cooperation with the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture. The date set for the Fair is Saturday, August 24th, with the supper the night before on the 23rd. It is hoped that there will be the best exhibit of vegetables ever, as the grape vine says due to high prices many people are returning to gardening. The State Committee has given a sizable allotment for prize money. The premium list will be ready some time in July which will tell the whole Fair story. Just start your plans on what you will put in the Fair for exhibit: vegetables, flowers, canning and needlework. Watch the Presto Press to keep informed. This is the only Agricultural Fair Mattapoisett has, with the cooperation of the State.

An exhibition of sparkling watercolors is now on view in the gallery at the Marion Art Center. The paintings are by Norman Fortier, a well-known South Dartmouth painter and photographer, whose work has been accepted in many juried shows and one man shows in the New England area. He is represented in many private and corporate collections. Although he is self-taught, Mr. Fortier shows extreme mastery of the art of watercolor.

Mr. Fortier is a professional photographer whose book, "The Bay and the Sound", has been a favorite for yachtsmen and lovers of the sea. They will find equal enjoyment in this show of watercolors of ships, boats and favorite yachting spots in Buzzards Bay and the Islands.

Mattapoisett Grange

Mattapoisett Grange held a meeting last Thursday night and discussed the Fair to be held August 24th and other matters of interest. Guests were from Wamsutta and Smith Mills Granges. An interesting discussion was held with Mrs. John Brennan, a member of the Town Youth Committee.

Not having a quorum of Mattapoisett Grange members present, no vote on any situation could be held.

The next meeting will be July 18th when a full quorum will be needed to vote on the question of readjusting the meetings to correspond with the continuation of the energy crisis.

A reminder to all members of the Grange who have at some time been an officer and have not turned in the Grange manual, please do so. They are needed for the new officers for 1975.

to inform parents of project VITAL, an experimental blueprint for academic success. The idea, teachers serving as an extension of guidance services, was developed largely by several members of the Old Rochester teaching staff in conjunction with David S. Hagen, acting principal of the high school, Edward Spalding, guidance counselor at the junior high school; and Dr. William Quinlan, at a series of three workshops. VITAL (Voluntary In-Service Teacher-Advisors for Learning) includes seventeen ninth grade teachers who have volunteered for the project. Their goal is to give all entering ninth grade in the fall, and hopefully subsequent entering freshmen, a teacher advisor who will work closely with and for them moving through the 4 year high school academic programs.

The teacher-advisor will help his students select the right courses for the right reasons, help channel them into meaningful extra-curricular pursuits, encourage their fruitful school-community participation, assist them in finding solutions to problems of an academic nature, and, generally, provide them with the kinds of occupational and career information so that the transition from high school to the world of work or higher education will be a smoother one. Time is being scheduled so each VITAL teacher participant will meet regularly with twelve or so students who he is assigned to assist.

Arrangements are being made to allow parents to participate in this program, for without their cooperation and interest the success of project VITAL cannot be assured.

Virtually without exception, the Old Rochester Regional High School teaching staff has heartily endorsed this effort. Its participants are convinced it will foster a greater interest in learning on the parts of all those involved, eliminate much of the struggle that many students now experience, and pioneer the way to a much richer four years of schooling.

Call-A-Teen is a job referral Service with job training clinics for young people 13-17 years of age sponsored by the New Bedford YWCA as one of its community services.

This Service is replacing Youth Power held for several previous years to serve young people 16-21 years old. The focus this year is on the younger teenager who wants to work and earn money.

Call-A-Teen Service Program is appealing to business and homekeepers who have a job for teens. Call the office, 993-5858, open from 9:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. and talk your need over with the attendant.

Every Tuesday there will be a Job Training Class from 10 to 11:30 A.M. to help prepare the teenager to better serve his employer. Teenagers interested are invited to attend and register for jobs. Call-A-Teen Office is in the basement of the YWCA and the Pleasant Street entrance may be used.

An open house is scheduled for Tuesday, July 2, from 2 to 4:30 P.M.

There are a few vacancies in the Junior and Senior Life Saving Classes. The courses covering 15 hours instruction, are co-ed and held on Tuesday and Thursday from 10:30 to 11:30 A.M.

WILDLANDS TRUST MEETING

The Plymouth County Wildlands Trust conducted the first annual meeting of the members on Thursday, June 20th, in the Musicorium of the Burkland School, Middleboro. The public was invited to attend. Colored slides were a part of the Land Acquisition Committee's report, and proposals for additional land acquisition were heard.

New officers were elected from the membership. The trust, formed in 1973, now holds approximately 100 acres of land in Plymouth, and is considering other parcels in Kingston, Wareham and Bridgewater.
